1. On or about April 8, 2009, in the Eastern District of Arkansas, the defendant,

SANGEETA MANN, a/k/a SUE MANN, while under oath in a proceeding before the Grand Jury of the United States in the Eastern District of Arkansas, knowingly made a false material declaration that is to say:

2. At the time and the place aforesaid, the Grand Jury was conducting an investigation of RANDEEP MANN, the husband of SANGEETA MANN, a/k/a SUE MANN, for violations regarding possession of unregistered firearms. At the time of the Grand Jury proceeding, RANDEEP MANN had been incarcerated for a period of time, and the actions and directives of RANDEEP MANN during his incarceration were material to a proper matter of inquiry for the Grand Jury.

3. At the time and place alleged, SANGEETA MANN, a/k/a SUE MANN, appearing as a witness under oath at a proceeding before the Grand Jury, knowingly made the following declarations in response to questions with respect to the material matter alleged in Paragraph 2 as follows:

Q: Did you remove anything else from the clinic?

A: No. ...

Q: Specifically, did you take anything out of your husband's desk and take it to Tim or Mr. Gulu? ...

A: You asked me about – well you asked me about two things in the office, and I was thinking more in terms of – you know – mail, bills, records, things like that but then, when you said my husband's desk, I did remember, and I apologize, it just slipped my mind, that my brother-in-law had some checks that he had left with my husband and they were in his desk and I apologize, it completely slipped my mind, but I did take those because – you know – the office, the clinic is empty, there's nobody in there and I just didn't feel that that would be a safe place. So, I did bring those home. ...

Q: What did you do with those checks when you took them out?

A: They're at home.

Q: So, you still have them?

A: Yes. I just thought it would be safer.

Q: So, you removed something because you thought it would be safer?

A: Yes.

Q: Is that the only reason you removed them?

A: Yes. Yes.

4. The aforesaid underscored testimony of SANGEETA MANN, a/k/a SUE MANN, as she then and there well knew and believed was false in that the checks had not been removed from the clinic because she thought it would be safer but because she had been instructed by RANDEEP MANN to remove the items.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1623.
