AFFIDAVIT

I, J. T. Coleman, being duly sworn, depose and state that:

1. I am a Special Agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), and have been employed with the FBI since September, 1998. I graduated from the FBI Basic Academy in Quantico, Virginia. While at the Academy, I received training in numerous areas, including but not limited to, narcotics, trafficking, public corruption, and money laundering. During the course of my employment with the FBI, I have participated in investigations which involved the use of undercover officers, confidential informants, cooperating witnesses, physical surveillance, PEN registers, trap and trace devices, consensual recordings and monitoring, drug evidence purchases, search warrant, arrest warrants, subject interviews and Title III applications and monitoring.

2. As a result of my training and experience as a Special Agent of the FBI, I am familiar with federal criminal laws relating to drug trafficking, firearms, and money laundering. I know that it is a violation of Title 21, U.S.C. Section 841 and 846, Title 18 U.S.C. Section 2 to conspire to, or attempt to aid and abet the possession with the intent to distribute marijuana, and that it is a violation of Title 18, U.S.C. 924(c) to possess a firearm in furtherance of a drug trafficking crime.

3. I submit this Affidavit in support of a criminal complaint and arrest warrant for MARK ANTHONY JONES and RANDALL TREMAYN ROBINSON. My belief that probable cause exists to arrest MARK JONES and RANDALL ROBINSON for the commission of one or more federal criminal offenses is based on the following facts that I have learned from this investigation, as well as from information supplied to me by other law enforcement officers. Since this Affidavit is for the limited purpose of establishing probable cause to support the Criminal Complaint and arrest warrants, it contains only a summary of relevant facts. I have not included each and every fact known to me concerning the activities, entities, individuals, and events described in this Affidavit.

4. From April 2010 through May 2012, the Little Rock Field Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) has been involved in a joint investigation with the Little Rock Police Department (LRPD) concerning the illegal activities of two LRPD Patrol Officers, who are also half-brothers, MARK JONES and RANDALL ROBINSON.

CHS-1 stated, "For real?"

JONES replied, "Yeah, we out there together. Me, him, and Ronnie."

CHS-1 asked, "You don't fuck with Ronnie though, huh?"

JONES answered, "Not on that level. He like a brother to me though."

CHS-1 asked, "What about your brother though?"

JONES responded, "He's my brother."

CHS-1 stated, "I mean, you know what I'm saying though."

JONES replied with something unintelligible.

CHS-1 asked, "So for a couple of dollars, you can make sure my boy (UCA-1) is straight?"

JONES replied, "Yeah."

CHS-1 asked, "For sure?"

JONES stated, "I'm sure."

CHS-1 noted, "You ain't even hollered at him and you're saying that."

JONES responded, "I know my brother."

d. On February 28, 2012, CHS-1 met with JONES at Whole Foods in Little Rock, Arkansas. During this recorded meeting, the following was said:

CHS-1 interrupted, "No, we gonna pay ya'll both. But what I'm saying is, I don't know how you and your brother get down."

JONES replied, "I just need to know what to tell him so I can tell him what he's getting out of the deal. That's the first thing he's going to ask."

CHS-1 asked, "Five ($5,000) apiece straight?"

JONES responded, "Yeah."

CHS-1 repeated, "Five a piece straight?"

JONES affirmed, "Yeah!" It is your Affiant's belief that JONES was agreeing that he and his brother (ROBINSON) would provide security over a drug shipment in return for $5,000 each.

e. On March 5, 2012, CHS-1 telephonically contacted JONES. CHS-1 let JONES know that he/she was going to have to postpone the drug shipment scheduled for March 15, 2012. During this recorded conversation, CHS-1 stated, "We got to reschedule that concert man."

JONES responded, "Straight. Okay. Alright."

CHS-1 replied, "Yeah."

JONES responded, "Yeah, for sure."

CHS-1 stated, "That's real man."

JONES asked, "Dates still the same?"

CHS-1 answered, "Yep. So, I got to make sure this shit right man."

JONES asked, "So, two vehicles gonna be enough to unload everything?"

CHS-1 responded, "Yep..."

CHS-1 and JONES discuss the route the two vehicles would have to take. CHS-1 advised, "I want everything to be just tight. You know what I'm saying?"

JONES responded, "oh, its gonna be tight. Its gonna be ready."

CHS-1 advised, "That's why I want to get with ya'll."

JONES responded, "No. I'll take care of all this."

JONES stated, "I'll take care of it. I got that end...I got that end. I got this end. You just handle that end."

JONES went on to say, "I don't want to tell him anything. He gonna know what he supposed to do. That's all he need to know is what he's supposed to do."

h. On March 22, 2012, JONES and his brother ROBINSON provided security over the controlled delivery of a purported 1,000 pounds of pharmaceutical grade marijuana, wherein JONES and ROBINSON each followed vehicles containing marijuana from a transfer location to two separate storage locations in Little Rock, Arkansas<sup>2</sup>. JONES' interaction with CHS-1 during this controlled delivery was recorded by CHS-1. Additionally, JONES' and ROBINSON'S activities during this controlled delivery were documented through both aerial video surveillance and ground surveillance. Both JONES and ROBINSON were driving marked patrol vehicle, on-duty, armed and in uniform. While ROBINSON was providing security to one vehicle, a shooting occurred in west Little Rock, and all police cars were ordered to respond. As other police cars were traveling to the scene of the shooting, they passed ROBINSON's patrol car following the vehicle with the marijuana. This was captured on the video cameras of the police cars responding to the scene as they had their lights and sirens engaged.

<sup>2</sup> The marijuana was delivered via a tractor/trailer rig being driven by an undercover agent and subsequently transferred to two rental vans being driven by CHS-1 and UCA-1 for transport to two separate storage units.

i. On March 22, 2012, following the completion of the above referenced controlled drug delivery, CHS-1 texted JONES to have him come pick up his payment for the security he and his brother, ROBINSON, had just provided over a drug shipment.

j. On March 22, 2012, MARK JONES arrived at CHS-1's place of business and obtained two packages, each containing a $5,000 cash payment, for the security he and ROBINSON had just provided over the receipt of a marijuana shipment. JONES' interaction with CHS-1 during this payment was recorded by CHS-1. Additionally, this payment was recorded via CCTV both inside and outside CHS-1's business. JONES subsequently met with ROBINSON in the parking lot of the Little Rock Police Department's Northwest substation. After completing this controlled delivery and receiving his payment, JONES was observed meeting with ROBINSON, when was still driving his marked patrol car, on duty and in uniform in the parking lot of the little Rock Police Department Northwest Precinct. This meeting was video recorded. Further, pen register and toll records identified 7 telephone calls and 7 text messages between JONES and ROBINSON.

10. On May 2, 2012, ROBINSON called the CHS-1. On May 3, 2012, ROBINSON went to CHS-1's place of business to meet. This meeting was recorded by audio and video. During this meeting, CHS-1 asked ROBINSON whatever happened about the shooting on St. James Court on March 22, 2012. (This shooting occurred while ROBINSON was following the CHS-1 to the storage facility to deliver the marijuana.)

After this question, ROBINSON's demeanor noticeably changed. ROBINSON asked the CHS-1 how he knew about the shooting that happened during the time ROBINSON was following the CHS-1. The CHS-1 stated that he heard about this from some people. At this point the video shows ROBINSON's demeanor changing. Later during the conversation, CHS-1 thanked ROBINSON for following him. That is when ROBINSON got a huge smile on his face and said , "you're talking to a blind man, what are you talking about?" The CHS-1 said it two or three more times and ROBINSON said each time, "I don't know what you are talking about" with a big smile on his face. The topic of conversation was changed and ROBINSON then started talking about a man named Jason who was on the street ripping off drug dealers. ROBINSON then stated that Jason ripped off one of his friends of drugs. ROBINSON told the CHS-1 that he was going to find Jason and make Jason pay ROBINSON a fee for not getting arrested.

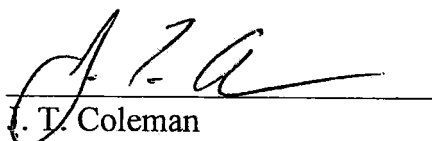

11. On May 3, 2012, after the meeting between ROBINSON and the CHS-1, the CHS-1 talked to JONES, and that meeting was recorded. The conversation involved them trying to set up another deal in which JONES and ROBINSON provided security. JONES told CHS-1 that his brother was not going to participate in the another deal because there was too much pressure. Later the UC talked to JONES and JONES told him the same thing , that ROBINSON was not going to participate because of all the pressure.

12. As a point of reference, ROBINSON sold marijuana in quantities of from 1/2 ounce to 1 pound to a CI for law enforcement on July 9, 2009, July 27, 2009, August 4, 2009, March 25, 2010, and May 5, 2010.

13. As delineated herein, JONES and ROBINSON were involved in attempting to aid and abet the possession with intent to distribute marijuana, a controlled substance, as well as conspiracy to do the same, in violation of Title 21, U.S.C. 841(a)(1), 846, and Title 18, U.S.C. Section 2 respectively. Further, in as much as JONES and ROBINSON were armed during and in furtherance of these drug trafficking transactions, they are also in violation of Title 18, U.S.C. 924(c).
