"TO ARMS!"

Awake: arise: ye men of might!

The glorious hour is night—

Your eagle pauses in his flight,

And screams his haitle.cry!

From North to South, from East to West, Send back an answering cheer, And say farewell to peace and rest, And tamsh doubt and fedr!

Arm! nrm! your country bids you arm!
Fing out your banners free—
Let drum and trumpet sound ularm,
O'er mountain, plant, and tea.

March onward from th' Atlantic's shore,
To Rio Grande's tide—
Fight as your fathers fought of yore!
Die as your brothers died!

Go: vindicate your country's fame—
Avenge your country's wrong!
The sons should own a deathless name
To whom such sires belong.

The kindred of the noble dead As noble deeds should dare; The fields whereon their blood was shed A deeper stain must wear.

To arms! to arms! ye men of might!
Away from home, away!
The first and foremost in the fight
Area sure to win the day!
