

DOWN WITH DISFRANCHISEMENT. Tomorrow will decide the question whether or not the disfranchisement of Arkansas is to be made forever. For years we, in common with the conservative press and democratic masses of the state, have cried out against this wrong, and now that an opportunity is presented for us to remove the shackles with which our friends have so long bound us, it would be cruel indeed to do our duty. That man who claims to be a friend of the people, and fails to go to the polls and deposit his ballot "for constitutional amendments," is guilty of a wrong to himself, to his neighbors and to his state. Let us cry throughout the state tomorrow, "Down with Disfranchisement!"

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY. HOUSE. March 1, 1873. Mr. Bradford called up house bill to encourage the breeding and raising of the horses and mules, which was ordered engrossed for a third reading, subject in the title of the house.

By Mr. Barber: To define the boundary lines between the counties of Yell and Barber, "read and laid on the table, subject to the committee on petitions."

By Mr. Berry, of Franklin called for an order to compel the citizens of Hotwell Brooks at the meetings of the Lope county town committee. Mr. Chapman moved the house into an adjournment to complete the judiciary committee. Carswell moved to refer back a similar bill without amendments.

Mr. Milles said that he was justifying the committee would do—that that similar bill would be reported back a similar bill without amendments.

Mr. Fox, chairman of the Judiciary committee, reported back house bill relating to filling vacancies in certain offices, and recommended that it pass.

Mr. Fox moved the bill be engrossed for a third reading.

On motion of Mr. Stumpier, the bill was read.

Mr. A. M. Hawkins amended the bill by striking "township officers" withdrawn.

Mr. Fox renewed his motion to engross the bill.

Mr. Milles moved the house adjourn to Monday morning, at 10 o'clock. Lost—yeas 31, nays 30.

Mr. Berry, of Benton, moved to amend by adding "the governor shall order an election in said county" after the words "of said county."

Mr. Stumpier called for the yeas and nays on the adoption of the amendment.

Mr. J. H. Johnson moved the bill, with amendments, be laid on the table, subject to the committee on petitions.

Also, house bill to exempt persons on certain ages from paying poll tax. Recommended that it do not pass.

Also, house bill relating to the administration of corporations. Recommended that it do not pass.

Also, house bill relating to fees, etc. Recommended that it do not pass.

Also, house bill relating to the incorporation of the city of Augusta. Recommended that it pass.

Mr. Fox called for the yeas and nays on the adoption of the amendment.

Mr. J. H. Johnson moved the bill, with amendments, be laid on the table, subject to the committee on petitions.

Mr. Walker asked if the registers and clerks were engaged, and the answer was that they were. Mr. Kincaid asked for the yeas and nays on the adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Kincaid asked for the yeas and nays on the adoption of the amendment.

THE STATE

News from the Counties—What is Doing On—Correspondence. A correspondent writes as follows from Lumburg:

A work in reference to two little villages north of this city, twenty-two miles from Little Rock, and seven miles from the Arkansas river. We have two towns, one blacksmith shop and one doctor shop.

We have a post-office here, and we have been here at that for six years, sometimes by subscription and sometimes by the name of the village.

The Devils Hill claims the particular of the burning to death of a man at that place a few days since.
