

"SEPARATE COACHES."

All That Can Be Said Against the Bill Just Passed. Speech of Representative J. O. Lucas, of Jefferson, in the House, February 17, 1891.

Mr. Speaker: I represent to this Assembly the people of the State of Arkansas. I represent to this Assembly the people of the State of Arkansas. I represent to this Assembly the people of the State of Arkansas.

Resolving the arena of the common election with this slogan, the Democratic was called, not only to regain lost ground, but to extend the same to the entire South and to the entire South and to the entire South.

right to force himself upon them as a member than he had a right to force his companionship upon a family or an individual. The privilege of the public theatre, the railway, and of the hotel, as well as the public theatre, are inherent rights.

These standard, set in a good measure, before the eyes of the people. It is a bill to amend the Act to regulate the conduct of passengers on railway trains.

If Little Babies Could Write Letters

WHAT a host of grateful testimonials the proprietors of the Cuticura Remedies would receive. How their little hearts would overflow in ink.

CUTICURA

Remedies invites the confidence of parents. They are absolutely pure, and may be used on the youngest infants. They are agreeable to the most sensitive.

Pimples, Blackheads, Itch, rough, and dry skin, and all eruptions and rashes of the face, are cured by the use of Cuticura Soap.

But of the waste of the former slave holding States, the colored citizen of Arkansas has been wronged in that in the State, at least, by an act of every other citizen under her sacred protection.

It is an unwelcome matter of attaining the rights of citizenship, for the colored man, if he is not a citizen, he is not a citizen.

Who are employed as your servants throughout the South in preference and to the exclusion of every other class? To the colored man, the very delicate duties that bring others in close proximity to his person are given to the colored man.

SYRUP OF FIGS

Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently and promptly on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels.

I'M SORRY

I have tried my very utmost the past season to reduce my stock of Dry Goods sufficient to give up that branch of my business, in order to confine myself entirely to my Carpet Trade.

When I shall next meet my friends of Arkansas, I shall be able to say with confidence that the bill is a bill to amend the Act to regulate the conduct of passengers on railway trains.

It is an unwelcome matter of attaining the rights of citizenship, for the colored man, if he is not a citizen, he is not a citizen.

Who are employed as your servants throughout the South in preference and to the exclusion of every other class? To the colored man, the very delicate duties that bring others in close proximity to his person are given to the colored man.
