

President Johnson, behind the wheel of his white Lincoln Continental auto, drove from his ranch in miles to Johnson City, Tex., to cast his vote...

Arthur J. Goldberg, United States ambassador to the United Nations, announced that he would visit South Vietnam...

Billy Graham, the evangelist, suggested at Charlotte, N. C., that President Johnson make a goodwill tour of Europe...

William B. Camp, 53, a federal monetary official for 30 years, was named by President Johnson to succeed James L. Saxon...

Jennifer Hunt, 19, daughter of the 1953 British expedition that rescued Mount Everest for the first time, suffered a stab wound in the neck that required 21 stitches...

Dennis Monroe Chambers, 21, of Valdosta, Ga., accused of beating a draft board member in an argument over his classification...

U. Alexis Johnson, new American ambassador to Moscow, presented his credentials to Emperor Hirohito at Tokyo...

Kim Du-Han, 32, a former South Korean National Assembly member, who hurried to a bucket of human excrement on cabinet members during a legislative session...

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, accompanied by two Secret Service agents, received a letter from a woman in Washington...

Harry S. Truman, appearing rather camera shy, looked at a polling place a block from his Independence, Mo., home...

Paul Martin, Canada's Foreign minister, ended four days of talks at Warsaw with Polish Premier Jozef Cyrulinski...

Bartholomew Sanders, former United States attorney in Dallas, was sworn in at Washington as assistant attorney general...

Philip Frank of Birmingham, commander-in-chief of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, told the annual luncheon of the United Daughters of the Confederacy...

John Hahn, 83, a Navajo Indian, rode six miles on horseback to vote at Canopolis, N.M., near Albuquerque...

Honze Speaker John McCormack (D-Mass.), running unopposed, was elected to his 21st consecutive term in Congress...

Mario Savio, 23, fiery leader of the University of California "free speech" movement and "free man" demonstration...

Lucius D. Amerson, 53, a Negro of Tuskegee, Ala., and a veteran of the Korean war, was elected sheriff of Rockingham County...

John D. Rockefeller IV, 29, a nephew of Republican Winthrop Rockefeller, was elected to the West Virginia state legislature...

Arkansas Gazette

147th Year—No. 554 LITTLE ROCK, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1966. 38 Pages 5 Cents

Rockefeller Apparently Wins; Holds the Edge in 31 Counties

Pikinton, Purcell Holding Margins Over Republicans

By JACK BAKER Of the Gazette Staff Democrat Joe Purcell apparently defeated Republican Jerry K. Thomason for attorney general Tuesday...

Ray Winder, Baldwin Lead

Pace Director Races When Count Stopped Ray Winder held a 64-4 vote margin over George Wimberly...

In the lieutenant governor's race, Purcell was leading Tomasson in 69 of 100 counties...

His Brother Was Leading David Rockefeller, president of the Chase Manhattan Bank of New York...

Trimble Trailing Hammerschmidt; Pryor Wins Big

Republican John Paul Hammerschmidt of Harrison held a steady lead over incumbent Representative J. V. Trimble of Berryville in the late, unofficial returns...

Johnson Delays Any Statement Till 10 a.m. Today

By JEROL GARRISON Of the Gazette Staff Winthrop Rockefeller, the Republican nominee for governor, apparently defeated his Democratic opponent...

Rockefeller gradually built a lead after the polls closed and reached 10,000 votes ahead of Johnson at 8:24 p.m. Then, for the next 2 1/2 hours...

Rockefeller owed his margin primarily to Pulaski County, where he collected 64 per cent of the vote...

Several counties in South Arkansas, considered Johnson's strongest support, headed by the Rockefeller column...

Way the Campaign Was Characterized

The campaign has been characterized as one of "Rebillion vs. Prestige," Johnson offering the voters an opportunity to rebel against the policies of the national Democratic administration...

WR Called Attention To 3 in Johnson Camp

While Johnson was criticizing the national administration, Rockefeller called attention to the fact that three of his closest backers, Leon B. Catlett, John G. Moore and Raymond D. Beseman, were members of the President's Club...

Table with 2 columns: County, Rockefeller Votes. Includes entries for Pulaski, Boone, Benton, Madison, etc.

Table with 2 columns: County, Winder Votes. Includes entries for Winder, Baldwin, etc.

Table with 2 columns: County, Pryor Votes. Includes entries for Pryor, Hammerschmidt, etc.

Consolidation Is Defeated By Big Margin Even Pulaski Votes Solidly Against Measure

By ERNEST DUMAS Of the Gazette Staff Rural school forces won the first statewide school consolidation vote in 18 years Tuesday...

It just means that some 25,000 children will have to walk to school and increase the number of school districts from 1,589 to 424...

Rural Resourcefulness Was Underestimated The consolidation plan's advocates in the Arkansas Education Association underestimated the resourcefulness of the rural forces...

Mostly the campaign was a contest between AEA leaders — Executive Secretary Forrest Rozell and others — and some voters' might have been exploited.

Winder trailed at one point during the tabulating but pulled ahead later. Dr. Townsend, a Negro, was running second in the race for Position 2...

Winder trailed at one point during the tabulating but pulled ahead later. Dr. Townsend, a Negro, was running second in the race for Position 2...

Table with 2 columns: Position, Candidate, Votes. Includes entries for Governor, Lt. Gov., etc.

Winder trailed at one point during the tabulating but pulled ahead later. Dr. Townsend, a Negro, was running second in the race for Position 2...

Winder trailed at one point during the tabulating but pulled ahead later. Dr. Townsend, a Negro, was running second in the race for Position 2...

Winder trailed at one point during the tabulating but pulled ahead later. Dr. Townsend, a Negro, was running second in the race for Position 2...

Winder trailed at one point during the tabulating but pulled ahead later. Dr. Townsend, a Negro, was running second in the race for Position 2...

Winder trailed at one point during the tabulating but pulled ahead later. Dr. Townsend, a Negro, was running second in the race for Position 2...

Winder trailed at one point during the tabulating but pulled ahead later. Dr. Townsend, a Negro, was running second in the race for Position 2...

Inside Today's Gazette

Table of contents for the newspaper. Includes: Announcements, Am Leaders, Billy Graham, City News, Classified Ads, Comics, Crossword Puzzle, Daily Record, Dr. Van Dellen, Editorials, Eleanor Lambert, Gore on Bridge, Jack O'Brian, North Little Rock, Obituaries, Our Town, Oklahoma-News Answers, Radio and TV, Sports Bulletin, Sports, Uncle Ray's Corner, Weather Map, Women's News.

At a campaign, he became the recipient of the Congressional Medal of Honor for valor in World War II on the Italian front and the first man in any history to win the nation's three highest combat awards (the Medal of Honor, Distinguished Service Cross and Silver Star) in a single war...

Democrats Try to Stop Use Of Negroes' Candidate Lists

A member of the Democrats for Rockefeller organization said that this notice was pointed out to a deputy sheriff at the Weingarten's store and that he was asked to take it down. He wouldn't, but said he would not do anything if somebody else took it down...