A. Purpose

The purpose of the Patron Conduct Policy is to establish regulations regarding public behavior on library and city property.

B. Policy

Persons using the library and its resources have the right to expect a safe, comfortable environment that supports appropriate library services.

The Springdale Public Library Board supports the rights of all persons to use the facility and all library resources. In order to protect the rights of all, the Board has identified conduct that may lead to denial of library privileges. This includes but is not limited to the following behaviors or activities:

Failure to Identify Oneself in a Forthright Manner

The failure to identify oneself includes using false identification to obtain a library card or use services, the use of another person’s card without permission, or the failure to identify oneself in a forthright manner when in conflict with rules. When a member of the public is in conflict with the rules, library staff may ask that person for photo identification. Failure to produce identification may result in loss of the privilege to remain in the facility as well as additional sanctions as set forth in this policy.

Illegal Activities

All activities prohibited by law, such as the sale of drugs, public indecency, gambling, etc., will be reported to the Springdale Police Department.
Weapons

The possession of weapons is restricted in the library pursuant to Arkansas Code Annotated 5-73-120. Specifically, unlawful is the carrying of a handgun, defined as a firearm with a barrel length of less than twelve inches (12) that is designed, made, or adapted to be fired with one (1) hand, the carrying of a knife or any bladed hand instrument with a blade 3 ½ inches long or capable of inflicting serious injury or death (ACA 5-73-120 and 121), the carrying of a “club,” meaning any instrument that is specially designed, made, or adapted for the purpose of inflicting serious physical injury or death. The use of cell phones is permitted inside the library provided the user speaks in a low voice and does not use speaker phone; extended conversations are best conducted outside the building.

The use of cell phones is prohibited in the computer lab due to the enclosed space and proximity of other lab users. The use of cell phones is also prohibited during library events.

The Library reserves the right to ask anyone using a cell phone to go outside the building or into the entryway area when staff has determined that conversations are disruptive to other patrons.

Disorderly Conduct - including but not limited to:

It also includes vandalizing or defacing any part of the library building, furnishings, or equipment.
Theft or attempted theft of materials or property

It is unlawful for any person to remove library materials without checking them out from the library or to retain possession of library materials without authorization, which is defined as “contrary to rules.”

It is unlawful for any person to willfully mutilate any library material. This includes removing any of the parts such as end covers, bar code labels, cards, accompanying discs or booklets, etc.

If a library employee has reason to believe that a person has committed or attempted to commit any offense that includes the unlawful removal of materials and/or mutilation of materials, they may detain and question that person in a reasonable manner. They may require that person to open and disclose the contents of any bags, purses, briefcases, and other containers that are in the person’s possession. If library materials or parts of materials are found in the possession of a person, the person may be subject to loss of the privilege of using the library and possible prosecution under the above stated law.

If items are found which have not been checked out, the person, if a cardholder in good standing, will have the choice of checking out the materials or surrendering them to the library staff. If the cardholder is ineligible to check out due to fines or billed items or the person does not have a library card, the materials will be confiscated by the library staff. If mutilated materials or parts of materials are found in the possession of a person, the person may be subject to loss of the privilege of using the library and possible prosecution under the above stated law.

Disorderly Conduct on City Property

As the library is located within Murphy Park, which is city property, staff is obligated to report to the Springdale Police Department unlawful or disorderly conduct when observed or reported by the public in the park or parking lots.

Unattended or Unsupervised Children

Parents are responsible for ensuring the appropriate behavior and safety of their children while in the library. (See Policy: Children’s Use of the Library) Parents may be reminded that the library is a public place and that staff members are not given the responsibility or authority to provide oversight for children.

An adult must accompany children under the age of eleven. Parents visiting the library with their young child(ren) are advised to remain in the Children’s area with the child(ren). A parent may be asked to return to their unattended child.
A parent may be called to pick up a child who has been left unattended. If the parent can’t be reached, a letter may be sent for future reference.

Consequences of Failure to Abide by Rules

An initial warning is given verbally by the staff member observing the conduct. The person may be asked to cease the conduct, to move to another location in the library, or some other simple solution.

A second warning for the same or similar offense will be given verbally by a senior staff member on duty and may result in loss of privileges for the remainder of the day. An incident report is submitted to the Director.

In severe situations, a senior staff member may deny immediate access or access for the remainder of the day. The Springdale Police Department may be called to assist staff in enforcing rules of conduct and in maintaining a safe environment.

Situations that evolve into a longer suspension are followed by written notification to the individual or to the parent if the individual is a minor. One letter of notification is sent via First Class U.S. Mail and a second mailing is sent via Certified Mail. A copy of the notification may also be retained at service desks to be presented if the person appears at the library before receiving the mailed copies. The standard suspension is for three weeks. An incident report is submitted to the Director and notification is sent to the Springdale Police Department.

Longer suspensions are used in the most egregious situations and may be applied only by the Library Director. An incident report is submitted to the Library Board, the Mayor’s Office and the Springdale Police Department.

In the case of theft of library materials, the following penalties are established by ACA 13-2-803:
